“ Mrs. Deborah Jean Harden

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ *Dear Harden family,
Please accept this post as an expression of my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one Ms. Deborah Jean. I'm writing to express the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed it this way when he said at (Job 14:14)"If an able bodied man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that I have for my mother, and also what I hope for Ms. Deborah Jean. May the God of all comfort be a source of comfort to your during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##*

“ *Dear Harden family, with these few words I would like to extend to you my sympathy in your time of loss. May you find it comforting even in a small way to know that Jehovah has given us the hope found at Rev 21:4 He will wipe out every tear from their eye, and death will be no more,neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. “ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Harden family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ To the Harden Family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength through God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 assures us that God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ To the Harden family - It doesn't matter what age a person dies our hearts are broken and the pain seems like it will never go away. We all express our grief in many different ways. Never feel you are alone, especially when we lose someone we love so much. Isaiah 41:10-13 "I am with you" says, Jehovah. "I am your God, do not be afraid". Jesus also provides comforting words at John 5:28 & 29, Revelation 21:3-5, God promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Psalm 34:1 "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ To the Family and Friends of Deborah Jean, I realize that words may offer little comfort at this time, but hopefully in the days and weeks ahead you will consider God's promises to mankind regarding this 'enemy'. Jehovah promises us that 'death' will be destroyed...forever (1 Corinthians 15:26). You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith##imported-end##
