“ Robert, my daughters and I just want to offer our love and support to you and your family during this time. You were there for us and our family during some of our darkest moments, and we wish that we could be in Michigan with you now... but we send our prayers to your family instead. We are here for you if you need anything.

Sincerely,

Angie Bennett

“ My prayers and love go out to Mr. Al Branch on the loss of his wife, Debra. I know what a struggle it's been physically for both of you and I thank God that her pain and dismay are over. Robert, know that we are praying for you in the loss of your step-mother and that we are here if you need us.

“ To the Branch family: I'm sending my sincere condolence to each of you. We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. Our Heavenly Father Jehovah feels the pain that you are going through. He holds out a promise that one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3-5) Additionally, He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out.
