“ To The Family Of Deirdre Ann Arnold: May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Arnold family much comfort during this time, God's words assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this times of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assues us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Geneva McClendon##imported-end##

“ Dear Arnold Family,

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. When it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk with, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to hear. That pain is not easily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven.

The Bible, however, holds out a different hope. Jesus Christ promised: "Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and out."

This is in the Bible at John 5: 28, 29. May the comfort of God help you during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

“ DeeDee was a very thoughtful sister. She would send me cards and letters just to say she was thinking about me. Out of the blue I would get clippings and articles from new papers that she wrote and it wasn't even my birthday. I loved her for that. I was glad when she started to spend more time in Las Vegas and I would come out to see her upon every opportunity. We shared meaningful talks about life, love, and future. I will miss those most of all. DeeDee was a quiet person but when she spoke I listened. She shared many things without using any words...her gestures and facial expressions said it all. Once she made a decision, it was final and she told you so in the kindest of ways. She was a true sweet heart. I know she is amongst loved ones in heaven.##imported-begin##Geena Foster##imported-end##

“ I join all of her family and friends in expressing my shock and sadness in Dede's sudden passing.

Dede was a truly inspirational alumna of Marygrove College, having most recently directed her generous giving to support a scholarship for a Marygrove student who was a returning citizen (formerly incarcerated). In addition, I recall fondly her very generous and thoughtful gift to the college of a limited edition Charles Bibb print called "The Keeper" which she told us was the picture that inspired her to complete her education after retiring from the US Postal Service at the age of 45. Today, this print hangs in my office for the enjoyment of all visiting faculty, staff, and students.

Dede will be missed by many and she will live on in the hearts and minds of her fellow Marygrove alums who were blessed to be touched by her love and generosity.##imported-begin##Dr. David Fike, President of Marygrove College##imported-end##

“ Dear Sister-n-law: We are sorry for your loss. Think of the good times you all had together and that will help to ease the pain in your heart. Deirdre is with Jackie now looking down at you and smiling. They are your guardian angels. Deirdre is in a better place. The Book of Ecclesiastes Chapter 4 verse 2, read it and you will understand why Deirdre and Jackie are happier than we are. Love and Peace, We will talk later.

“ May the God of all comfort give you the strength needed to endure the days ahead. Jehovah promises that his original plan for humans to live forever in paradise on earth will come to fruition. Just a little while longer and "death will be no more, neither pain or sorrow" - it will all be a thing of the past. “ ...to my "family" and friends...Dede was my best friend for forty-five years. Her loving, faithful, strong spirit will be cherished by my family and myself forever. Her last words to me..."I love you...bye,bye" solidifies our undaunting strong relationship. I shall miss my "sister" but I shall see her again. She has crossed the realm of temporary and has entered the realm of permanency and now is resting in the arms of our Lord. Keep the faith, remember the good times, remember the love and fullness of life that she conveyed to all of us. "Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal". I love you all.##imported-begin##Kathy W. Ford##imported-end##

“ The unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit is great worth in God's eye sight (1 Peter 3:4)
A THANK YOU PRAYER
Thank you for your Friendship, Kindship my friend and sister. I admired for her strength, I am so grateful for all the joy, beauty, and special unique kind of humor, she added to mine. for all the hugs and smiles, I will be forever grateful. I pray for the tears of grief to dry in the sun of happy memories that she leaves when life is done. Thank you Lord for my beautiful FRIEND and SISTER.##imported-begin##Ann Flourney##imported-end##
