“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of Ms Delgreta LaMar. I had the pleasure of working with her at Hanstein school in Detroit. She was a remarkable woman. She was loving and patient with the children. She was a great mentor to me as a younger woman, always encouraging me to strive for more out of life. She taught me what professionalism is. The life lessons learned from her and Shirley Rhodes still lead me today. Earth has loss an angel. God bless her family and friends.##imported-begin##Lavern Moss##imported-end##

“ Delgreta was one of the most wonderful sorors I have had the pleasure of knowing in my lifetime. I recall attending many meetings and AKA Lambda Pi Omega events with her and her sister Doris Campbell. Whenever we met, she always had a kind and encouraging word. Pleasant memories of her and the early years of Lambda Pi will sustain me as I participate in the Ivy Beyond the Wall ceremony. Rest in peace dear soror.##imported-begin##Soror Patty Edwards##imported-end##

“ Aunt Del...you helped mold me into the woman I am today....you will be missed.

To the family...as soon as I read this poem..I could hear Aunt Del saying these words...

Why are you crying? Do you think that I'm gone?
I haven't left you, I'm where I belong.
Anytime you are lonely, anytime you are sad, anytime that your heart breaks, anytime you are mad-all you have to do is close your eyes and I'll be there with you. You see the world may take my body but that's all that it can do. When Jesus died upon the cross, he took away our sins. He conquered death so we can live in heaven where life begins.
Don't stop the memory of the time we shared.
It's God way to help you through.
Take time to laugh when life gets hard, the way we used to do!
A smell? A touch? The morning sun? They all will help you see.
I'm still there. I never left. Now smile once more for me.
Live each day. Keep looking up. My life was not in vain. I finished the task I was born to do. That's why I couldn't remain. Until I see you-I love you forever and always.##imported-begin##Miksha##imported-end##

“ To the LaMar Family,

It is with great sadness we learn of the passing of your love one. Hold on to your good times and fond memories. Mrs. LaMar was a beautiful individual inside and out. She always had a kind word and showed a loving caring spirit. Remembering her from my days on Scotten brings great childhood memories. May God bless you and yours during this difficult time.

You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

“ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience, when we lose someone we love so much. Revelation 21:3-5, Our Grand Creator promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Even Jesus provides comforting words at John 5:28 & 29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Luke 23:43 Jesus also said, "You will be with me in paradise". 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
