Please accept my condolences during your time of bereavement. I'm praying God's continued strength, love and comfort in the days to come.

"And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away." Rev. 32:4##imported-begin##Rev. Jill Day-Foley##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ Dear Lemmons Family,

My prayers are with you during this difficult time. I am honored to have known Deliah Ann Lemmons. I enjoyed the days sitting on her porch and listening to her stories about the days when she picked cotton; her favorite teacher, and the business she and Mr. Lemmons owned. Mrs Deliah was an amazing and beautiful woman. Her stories will live on in my heart.

God bless the family. ~Leslie Love###imported-begin###Leslie Love###imported-end###

We pray that you will find continued strength and courage in the many prayers that are going forward on your behalf. We thank and praise God for her witness while here on earth with us. “ Dear Rev. Michael and Mrs. Anita Lemmons,
We were so sorry to learn about the death of your mother, Mrs. Lemmons. May God comfort you as you mourn her loss from your family here on Earth, but we know that you know that Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. We hope that beams of Heaven will bless you at this time. Although she is absent from where you can hug her, Mrs. Lemmons is present with the Lord who can rock her in the cradle of His arms. Hang in there! God loves you and so do we!

Sincerely,

Jesse and Mary Hawkins
