“ I was so sorry to read of the lost Deloris Ali. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to you and your family during this difficult time. May you find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of comfort is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves (2 Corinthians 1:3 / Psalm 34:18).

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Ali family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin##Ariel###imported-end##

“ Deepest sympathy for your loss. While few words offer peace during such a difficult time, perhaps the thought expressed at Revelation 21:3,4 provide you with comfort and hope.##imported-begin##LaVerne##imported-end##

“ Cousin Deloris, we will always love you.
For You...
"The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever."
