“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies. Losing loved ones in death can make us feel so alone because of the void left behind by that person. The scriptures encourage us during this distressful time by letting us know we can always call on our Heavenly Father in prayer and he hears us. “In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah, And to my God I kept crying for help. Out of his temple he proceeded to hear my voice, And my own cry before him for help now came into his ears.” (Psalms 18:6). At times such as these always remember "While YOU throw all YOUR anxiety upon him, because he cares for YOU." (1 Peter 5:7)###imported-begin##V Williams###imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to your family during your time of grief. Please find comfort in God's word the Bible because he is the God of all comfort. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 tells us " (3)Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, (4) who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God."###imported-begin##Lisa###imported-end##

“ I'm just writing to give you some encouraging word from the bible. John5:28,29 says Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out those who did good things to a resurrection of life. What a wonderful time it will be to see this future prophecy come true.##imported-begin##Kim marshall##imported-end##

“ Demetria, I remember when we first met at DRH years ago and we have been friends every since. Summertimes, my walks around the complex and I would come to your office to chat for a minutes or two or just to say hi. Even if we didn't call each other, our many emails that was shared where our communication.

I will miss our talks, laughs and the times we had. You will be truly missed.##imported-begin##Rhonda Collins##imported-end##
