“ Nothing words can say, nothing a friend could do, could make up for the passing of one so dear to you. But it may bring some measure of comfort and relief to know that sympathetic thoughts are with you in your grief. May the comfort of Jehovah and his son Jesus, bring peace to your hearts now and through the days ahead. May your tears of sadness turn to smiles as you remember the times shared with Demia. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the family much comfort, here God assures Davis us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I recently i lost a cousin on Monday.
A Cousin that was smart, funny and lving a better life than we could image for her.
I look at statures and look at photot's and emotions come aborad.
Instead of weeping about the time we didn't have together I relive the memories we shared together
If that means being over Cliff's house and celeabrating a remarkable day or Sitting on John R rd watching a parade
I am remebering the good that we had
I want you to know that I can never say i feel what your feel cause I don't
But what i can say you are going to make alot of poeple happy in Paradise
Demia Davis I want you to know...No matter what is happening in any one's life you inspired then.
So thank you Demia for allowing me to be your cousin, friend and apart of your family

“ Dear Family: I did not know your loved one, Demia, personally, but I was touched at heart when I saw her picture in the listings today. What a beautiful young woman! I can't even begin to imagine your pain and sorrow, but, as a fellow parent, I do care and share your sorrow. I know that words can offer little comfort for you today, but please take heart in the fact that the God of All comfort knows and understands your pain. (2 Cor. 1:3,4) In the Bible at John 5:28, 29 he promises a resurrection for our loved ones who have died, including your beloved Demia. And, God also promises that one day soon, DEATH and tears of sorrow will be no more! (Revelation 21:4). In the days ahead I pray that your hearts and minds can find comfort in what God is going to do shortly and I hope that it will help you to see that a beautiful future for obedient mankind lies just ahead! (Titus 1:2:29) My deepest, heartfelt sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I truly don't know what to say but I am really sorry for your loss. Demia was such a warm-spirited young lady who touched so many people. It hurts my heart to see my family going through such a difficult time. To be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord. “ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Demia, and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time, please know you can rely on God from comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

Respectfully,
