“ My Mother; My Queen; My She-ro!

Who would've thought we'd have such a grand time together these last 8 months. It was GOD's plan. We've had good days & great days, never the less I'm honored to have been the chosen one. I know your smiling down on all of us and because of you all your girls are stronger. Knowing this day was ultimately coming (we all got a turn) it is still very hard for me to not be able to check on you. I've acquired an enormous amount of strength knowing GOD's got my front, back and both sides and until we meet again my sweet, I know that you know you are my best girl in the world! Until then I'll have to keep my "big girl" on and keep it moving. Lol. See you a little later on LOVE U ALWAYS your baby girl Cheryl###imported-begin###Cherylgirl###imported-end##

“ I just want to say that I love the Watson family because yall ARE my family. "Granma" was 1 of kind & her character has definitely been duplicated within the rest of the family. My love and comfort goes out to all of her family & friends. I REALLY wished I could've have been there personally, but my situation didn't permit me to do so. I know that "the girls" are holdin' it down, so yea, everything is everything. I love yall & may "Granma" R.I.P. O & to the younger grandkids, DON'T WORRY, she's still & always will be around, she's just invisible now :). Keep her in yall hearts.

*PEACE & LOVE,
Jai###imported-begin###Jamilah Coleman###imported-end##*

“ Hey Grandma....I love and miss you so much and I can only imagine how proud you are of all of us for staying strong and carrying on your legacy. Because I know you are with our Lord that gives me great hope that I'll surely be seeing you again one day. There could never be another you Grandma so please continue to watch over us and be with us as we live our lives without your physical presence.
I love you, Ahmani###imported-begin###Mani###imported-end##

“ Grandma,

I miss you so much. I am truly blessed to have had you in my life for as long as I did. Because of you I am the strong woman that I am today. You shaped & molded everything about me. I am also very thankful that my children had you in their lives as well. We have all learned so much from you. I will always remember the times that we had laughing & talking. You are truly a remarkable woman and you will always remain in my heart. I go to bed thinking about you and I wake up thinking about you. I have already had my moments of laughing thinking about something you said or did. I will never forget the last laugh that I know you gave to me as you were being carried away. When that man tripped, I know you were saying to me, Here is one to go. One minute I was crying & the next I couldn't stop laughing because I know you would have been cracking up. That man must have thought I was crazy. Thank you Grandma for everyting. I know that your memory will live on forever because my children will tell their children all about their crazy & fun great-grandmother, Doris Ann Watson. I love you always, forever & ever.##imported-begin##Tina##imported-end##

“ Dear Pat and Gregory and family,

You have my condolences in your hour of bereavement. Continue to think of your mother and mother-in-law in the present. The happy things and times you shared together will continue to give you peace and comfort in the future.

With kindest thoughts to you,

Your cousin,
