“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ May your hearts be comforted during this difficult time I pray that our Grand Creator give you the strength needed to endure the days ahead. He is the God of all comfort. Revelations 21:3-5; soon we will mourn no more, and death will be a thing of the past. Mrs. Barney has the opportunity for a resurrection. John 5: 28-29 Trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding; he is the one who created us and knows our DNA to bring us back to life. It's as good as done! Keep His words close to your heart as you treasure the memory of her. Isaiah 41:10 & 13##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to learn of your loss. Although I did not personally know Mrs. Barney, I do know the feeling of losing a loved one. Take comfort in the Holy Scriptures. At John 5:28,29 it says: "Do not marvel at this,because the hour is coming in which all those on the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out..." Take comfort in these words and know that you are in the thoughts of your friends and family during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ Dear Barney family, please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Doris Louise. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This hope is held out to all mankind, including Ms. Doris Louise. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Barney family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: When someone we love dies it breaks our hearts. We try to accept it as 'a part of life' as we struggle to move on without them in our lives. Fortunately, our loving Creator has promised that soon such events as death will no longer haunt mankind and separate us from those we love. Jehovah God has promised to destroy death (Isaiah 25:8) and to restore our loved ones to us who have died by means of a resurrection (John 5;28,29). May these Bible truths bring comfort and reassurance to your hearts that you can see your loved one, Doris Louise, again. It is Jehovah God's desire that you do (Job 14:14,15) and he has promised that you will (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
