“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ Dear Price family, please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Dorothy Ann. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The bible's clear teachings remove all confusion about what happens to us at death. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he stated at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a promise made by God, and it is a hope that is held out for Ms. Dorothy Ann. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Dear Family and Friends at this time of distress remember “Jehovah will become a secure height for anyone crushed a secure height in times of distress. And those knowing your name will trust in you, for you will certainly not leave those looking for you, O Jehovah.”--- Ps.9:9,10 May the God of Heaven be with all of you.##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith##imported-end##

“ To the Price Family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength through God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and death will be no more. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra Sargent##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: As you reflect on the life of your loved one, April, her legacy and the memories she has left for you to treasure, may your hearts be comforted in knowing that Our Loving God also cares for you (1Peter 5:7; Psalm 83:18) He is mindful of your pain, your grief and sorrow and he is anxious to mend your broken hearts and bind up your painful spots. (Psalm 147:30) He understands your desire to be with your loved one again and will fulfill that desire by means of a resurrection for John 5:28,29 states: “...the hour is COMING when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out...” What a wonderful hope we have for the future! The joy of seeing our loved ones again! So, yes, even though tears will flow and hearts will pain, God promises that the 'tribulation' will be 'momentary and light' when compared with the wonderful future he has prepared for those who love him. He (God) will wipe away the tears from all faces and DEATH will be no more! (Rev. 21:4) Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us! (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
