“ To the family, may you find strength and comfort in God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and he will certainly wipe the tears from all faces, and death will be no more. May you find comfort and strength through the Bible.##imported-begin##Sierra##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Rudolph family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Words cannot express the grief we feel when we lose our loved ones. My heart and deepest sympathy goes out to the Rudolph family. The Bible says of the Almighty: "For He is not a God of the dead, but of the living, for all live unto Him."-Luke 20:38. May you find comfort through the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. C##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to your family during this very difficult time. May you find comfort in knowing that Almighty God, Jehovah, has the power and desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. (John 5:28,29) Soon many who have died will live again and enjoy perfect life on earth, in peaceful new world under God's Kingdom. (Matthew 6:9,10)##imported-begin##Valerie##imported-end##

“ Dear Aunt Dorothy,
You will be missed! Thanks so much for wonderful family memories and your many visits to Mississippi.

To Joyce Ann, Charles and the rest of the family, please know that I will lift up my eyes unto the hills from whence cometh our help.

With love,
