“ To Rev. James P. Quincy III and Family,

Please accept my sincere sympathy during this time of bereavement. It is obvious that Mother Quincy was a soldier for Christ and her crown has already been prepared for her. May you take comfort and joy in knowing that she has fought the good fight and is now at rest from her labor.

“ To my family, Over the 8 years of overseeing mother, we spoke about many things. She was a human wisdom machine. She knew when many of you were ill or were just going thru. God gave her the gift of discernment. Some times we prayed alone other times we prayed together for all of you. Mama believes in Love. The greatest gift we can provide to each other is Love and peace. Mama stuck with me and I with her because we shared the same spirit. We both Love God! Now that mama has walked thru that door as a brave trooper, lets protect her legacy and Love one another, forgive one another. From this moment on, I, I forgive and Love everyone.
Please do the same for me. Love Auntie Drehna##imported-
