“ Once again, a beautiful woman in my family has been called home.

Coretta, Uncle Cliff, & Family you know I love you all. May God be with the entire family as we grieve, take comfort in knowing the Lord will bring us through.

Love, Candi

*God had a talk with my Aunt Dot on December 16th 2009.
he told her not to worry her family would be just fine.
God led her down a walkway of memories oh so dear,
he gave her peace and comfort by removing all the fear.
God told her that her lost to us would only cause us pain, but he gave her comfort in knowing that her love will sustain.
Aunt Dot awoke on the 17th with a joy we could not know,
she knew she had to leave us; it was time to go.
We think her life is over, yet it has only begun,
her job is very special now, for she is with her son.
They are watching over us; try not to shed that tear,
Just close your eyes and remember them because they are always near!*

“ When the sun has set in the life of a loved one and we feel so very sad even our tears ...are all gone.
It is then and only then that we can really reflect on the best of memories..those we want never to forget.
Thoughts of sad times...thoughts of good times....
thoughts of special times...and in between times.
Times when we were young and thought life was forever.
Times when our own ideas we thought were so clever.
Times of happiness...Times of peace..
Times of contentment we thought would never cease.
But in everyone’s lifetime.. sunset....begins.
Whether many years ...or few..Life on earth is destined to end.
Sometimes with no warning or reason to fear.
Sometimes after suffering with much pain and tears.
Thank God..for His Son Jesus whom He freely sacrificed for the sin of all man...to offer eternal life.
And our God has promised through Jesus Our Lord
That His love would bring comfort as we read His Holy Word.
“I will not leave you comfortless” He said,
“I will come to you” as through sadness you tread.
God will enhance...your memories
As His beauty you behold.
At day’s end...At Sunset..His blessings He’ll unfold.##imported-
