“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Baker family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones, especially when that loved one turns out to be a parent. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised that soon death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to enjoy life again. (John 5:28,29; 11:25) I hope in the days ahead as you find a quiet place and reflect on the life of your dear mother and friend, Dorothy, and the precious memories she left you, that you will also find much comfort and reassurance as you contemplate Jehovah God's promises to us for the near future (Joshua 23:14). Please keep his promises close to your heart for they will not fail to come true. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

To The Baker Family:

The Pastor, Officers, and entire membership of Antioch Missionary Baptist Church, Louisville, Mississippi offer you our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your beloved

Dorothy Baker

This past week the one you loved stepped across the threshold that we call death, but it was only a step into another room, and not a stepping out of fellowship of life. It was a stepping into another one of the other rooms of our Father's House.

Dorothy is at peace with God now, and rejoicing in her happy heavenly home.

Your hearts are heavy today but know that God is perfect and good; He makes no mistakes. Put your hand in the Master's hand; and He will make everything all right. Know that God loves you.

Prayer is the thread that binds us together; and with prayer we will understand it better by and by. We love you, care for you and pray that God will continue to bless you.

Be it Resolved, that our deepest expression of sympathy be extended to the family; whom we commit unto the God of all comfort, who will sustain them, in their hour of loss.

*“Then shall the dust return to the earth
As it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.”*

Eccles.3:21

“ Death of a loved one is always hard to bear, I just wanted you to know that others understand and share your pain, but especially does God know and feel your pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22) Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28, 29). In time, may your hearts find comfort in what God has promised, for it will all shortly come true (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin##T. Cherry###imported-end##

“ Dear Baker family, please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Dorthy Lee. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Ms. Dorthy Lee. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
