“ It is with my deepest sympathy to you and your family for your lost.

Although, I did not know your mom, I am however, very fortunate to work for her son, Samuel Chambers, Jr., where I serve as his Administrative Assistant, Baltimore Dept. of Social Services.

Daily, I get that rare opportunity to observe greatness in the making. I listen to Mr. Chamber's words of leadership, wisdom, and not to mention the perks of listening to Gospel music everyday...

I am fortunate to observe that inner-light that shines whenever he speaks about his family, the wonderful family vacations, the joys of fatherhood, grand-fatherhood, the love he has for his wife, and the downtime of “show and tell” of his wonderful photography capturing the spirit of all he loves so.

I know the angels are smiling down upon your family. Your mom has won the race, God has shown her good favor, now she has taken her place, and she can receive her just reward of eternal rest.

“ Well done, thy Good and Faithful Servant”.

Respectfully submitted,
