“ Dear Michelle and Family,
I was very sad to hear of Earldean's passing. She is no longer suffering and is with her husband now. It's very difficult, though, for the ones left behind. I hope you will focus on the good memories and the best of her. A poem:
MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little--but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me - But Let me Go!

“ To Bobbie and Family: At this time, when words can't express all that our hearts would say, just know that this message brings our love, prayers, and condolences. No one can relate to the pain that is inflicted in the loss of a sibling, unless he has experienced such and occurrence. "To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven."
