“ To the Moore family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort through the Word of God. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more..."- Rev.21:4.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ I will continue to pray for our family. Remember no one can take away our memories and love we have for each other. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I know we are all reaching for that same goal. Just remember we will meet again when we leave from here.

“ Revelation 21:1-7

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be His peoples, and God himself will be with them; He will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.'

Praying for your continued strength,
