“ I know your hearts are broken. Mrs. Greene was 88 years old. I'm sure her many conversations about the "old days", and her experiences in life, must have been a joy to listen to. Even though I did not know her personally, I have always had a special fondness for the elderly. There life experiences help me to be a better person, in caring for the needs of others. No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. According to Psalms 90:10, Mrs. Greene had "special mightiness" to live as long as she did. Yet, 88 years is not enough, when our heavenly Father, Jehovah God intended us to live forever in paradise on earth. Mrs. Greene can rest now from death inherited from Adam & Eve, where death ruled as king. (Romans 5:12-21). By means of God's underserved kindness, He has given us the gift of Jesus, who sacrificed his perfect life, so we can have, that "promised" life. God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34; 18) I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Please throw your burden, upon him, because he cares for you. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ I extend my heartfelt compassion and love to my family on hearing of the passing of my dearest Aunt Earthleane. She inspired me to be the best that I can be, always pursuing, making everything I do count in this life; even motivating me to decorate my home to feel and look like no other house on the block...having that "Home & Garden Magazine" ambiance. I loved her and cherish all our times together. I was thrilled knowing that we were going to visit and be with her, my cousins, and Uncle Bob in Inkster. They will always remain in my heart. Love you all always, Sherry##imported-begin##Cousin, Sherry##imported-end##

“ Dearst Kim,

On the behalf of the Respiratory Care and Diagnostics depatment at Detroit Receiving Hospital I offer condolences to you and your family. You speak very highly of your mother and her many accomplishments. I believe the worldwas made better by God allowing her to be here 88 years. One accomplishment I can truly attest to is that she raised a caring, compassionate, very intelligent daughter..you and for that I say thank you. Remember my prayers are with you and God loves you and is taking care of you now. Blessings to you and your family.
