“ As an adult looking back on my childhood, I realize there were several people who gave of themselves unselfishly and helped to shape who I am today. Mrs. Means was central to this. Beginning in elementary school where she made sure I was behaving and attending classes, to serving as a Den Mother when I was a Cub Scout. She has always been a part of my life and I will never forget her. God bless her, and God bless the family as you navigate through this difficult time.##imported-begin##Clinton E.
