“ I just cannot believe we cannot talk on the phone anymore. Remember how we used to go behind the building at work just to get private talk time. I never wanted another best friend. I had you. Now I have you in heaven. I know you have not stopped hugging Amanda. Keep sending those angels down to look over your girls. Love you and always will.##imported-begin##Sharon Stach##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ To the Steanhouse family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear love ones. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. “ Dear Family: There are few things in life (if any) more painful to us than the loss of a family member, especially a beloved parent, a mother. I understand that pain for I, too, loss a dear mother some years ago and I know that pain can be almost unbearable, striking the core of our very being, and we wonder how we can move on without them in our lives. It is at times like this when we need comfort and support from our family, our friends and others like me who, although not knowing you personally, still care. But most importantly, we need comfort, assurance and hope from our Grand Creator that will give us the strength and the courage to move on with our lives confident of better days ahead. Jehovah God assures us of those better days ahead for he promises soon to ‘swallow up death forever’ (Isaiah 25:8) to resurrect our loved ones who have died (John 5:28, 29) and to “wipe out every tear from our eyes” because “...mourning, nor outcry, nor pain will be anymore”. Jehovah promises that He’s making “all things new” and not to worry because ‘these words are faithful and true’. (Revelation 21:4, 5). What a beautiful hope and future Jehovah has placed before us and we are assured again at Titus 1:2 that all he has promised will come true. My deepest, heartfelt sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Steanhouse family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
