“ To Edna's Daughters, (continued)

*You girls were very young when I worked for you mother at Micigan bell and she always talked well of both of you and I even got to meet you as well as your father who she always called "Jett". You had a wonderful Mother who we all loved and respected. You should be very proud of her for all that she did for other people.

“ Dear Mrs. Jett-Carter & Jett-Bennett,

*I was very sorry to read of the death of your mother. Please accept my sympathy in behalf of yourselves and your entire family. The loss of a mmother leaves a deep void in one's life and heart; it's as if we lose the one who taught us how to love and be loved. But with strength and comfort from the "God of all comfort", we endure. I will say a prayer for your family. Please take care.
(Psalm 34:18; John 11:25)*

“ Gail, my prayers are with you. I know how much you cherished your Mom. Being a an old wise Mom myself, I know she's in a much better place. I also know, in time, the pain and sorrow of the loss will subside and you will be left with nothing but good memories and the joy of having had such a wonderful Mother. Lean on God, He'll forever be there for you and your immediate family as well as your extended family. God Bless. Love, Annie P. Brent (Sheila Mason's Mom)###imported-begin###Annie P. “ The loss of anyone is unbearable. But the loss of a Mother, who brought you into this world truly leaves a void. Our prayers are with you. I pray that you have fond memories and that you find peace in knowing your Mother is with God our Father in Heaven. May God continue to comfort you and your family. God does not make mistakes, and remember: Philippians 4:19 - But my God shall supply all our need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. He will sustain you, even through this loss.

“ Dear Dot, Gail and Family; you are in my prayers now and will continue to be as I know too well that it will take time to adjust (learn to live with it) to the loss of your mother/grandmother.

Thank you so much for your williness to share aunt Edna with me and my family. We each loved her sooo very much and will be forever grateful for all her generous and kind expressions of love.

The photo you selected for this Web site is wonderful. She looked just like she did the last time I saw her. Seeing it made me really realize how much I will miss her and yet, smile back at her at the same time.

My heartfelt sympathy to each of you (and all of us who loved her, too). I hope we are able to all get together soon. I love you all.

*With much love and lots of big hugs,

“ Your loss is our loss, because when you know someone for 45-50 years the way we have, that makes us FAMILY. We must keep the faith and continue to encourage, support and love one another...not so much that we can/will understand why our loved ones leave us when they do, but because it will help/make us grow stronger together in Christ.

“ I know that at this time it's hard to understand the things that's happened but be at peace knowing that she is in GOD's loving arms and always will be with you, Carry the love that you have and draw on that when you feel as if you can't go on and that your pain will be more than you can bear, in time the pain will become easier to bear and then you will be able to smile when she comes to mind. we love you and hope to see you soon.##imported-begin##Vesey Whitaker and Family##imported-end##
