“ *Dear Chester and Family,
Thinking of you. At times like these it seem difficult to find words to express condolences in the lost of a love one. But I know you will miss your mother. She always showed me love. She was such a classy lady with lots of poise. I suggest you take one day at a time and draw your strength from the Lord. We pray that our God will keep you and your family in His Care.
Love, Pauline & Alfred Lewis*

“ Chet,

My fondest memory of Aunt Edna was going to see her when I visited North Carolina. I would walk up the road to her house and knock on the door. She'd take so long to come to the door an I would start to walk away and then I would hear the door open. "Dee Dee, how you doing? Come on in. Look at you. Look skinny. Need to put some weight on!" :)....Okay now fast forward some years..."Dee Dee, how you doing? Come on in. Look like you fattened up some!" Hilarious!! I really missed her these last couple of years I visited. I pray for God's comfort blanket to surround you during this most difficult time. Rest in comfort in knowing that we will see again. Love you and family. Dee Dee

“ So many memories of a very important, motivational, and instrumental person in my life. A person I am proud to call my "mom-tie". She is my mom-tie because she was a my mom and my auntie all rolled into one spectacular person. Someone that would allow one of your nephews that just wanted to stay with her to grow up under her love, guidance, and support for many years. There are no words to say how much I will miss you, but I am very thankful for the years we had together. I rejoice in the fact that you get to reunite with our loved ones gone before you in. No more are you bound by the limitations of this life. You are not only in a better place, you are in the best place. I will always treasure and love you. Take your rest now.

“ Chet...may our God shield you & yours with His comfort blanket at this time of going through. I share my memories of Aunt Edna. Besides her girl-like chuckle, she was industrious, creative, sharp witted, fearless, a sharp dresser, direct, loved children, and she put the "D" in Diva!
"Those who live in the Lord never see each other for the last time."
Praise God, that it is "so long" and not "goodbye."
She is safe inside His love.
May the Prince of Peace...our Lord Jesus infiltrate your hearts.
Love & sweet peace.
