“ Ms. Marie, thank you for your words of wisdom and encouragement. It was always a pleaseure to hear your views on life. You always managed to put things in perspective for all of us. I will always remember your sign-on, "Hi Babe", to either Mildred or Angelo and your infamous sign-off, "I love ya". Your journey has begun, spread your wings and fly away home. We'll miss you. “ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Eleanor. It doesn't matter how long our loved ones are with us, it is never long enough! We love them and we don't want them to die (Psalm 89:48) As you continue to cherish Mrs. Eleanor's precious memories, may you be reminded of God's promise at Revelation 21:4,"...he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more." Jehovah God assures us that He will not forget our loved ones who have died, for they are resting in his memory and will be resurrected in due time. (John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15). May the God of all comfort be with you now and strengthen you to endure until then. Rest assured all will take place as he has promised, for he cannot lie. (2Cor. 1:3,4, Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin##joyce jones###imported-end##
