“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ Thanks for your telephone call. I'm sorry we didn't get in touch with each other. I learned of Liz's passing today and would like to offer my deepest sympathy. The last time Liz and I spoke she shared with me about her relationship with the Lord so I hope to see her again and that one day we will meet at Jesus' feet. My condolences to all the family and know that you are all in my prayers.###imported-begin###Sylvia Anderson###imported-end###

“ Dear Family of Elizabeth,

I worked with and shared very, very special times with Elizabeth at Pulmonary Rehab last year. Faith, I met you when you came to visit us while your mom was exercising. Elizabeth and I have continued to share e-mails since. I will never forget her quick wit, her smile and always, always her determination and perseverance. She is so full of love!

My thoughts are with you and I will truly miss your special Mom.

All my best to you,

“ Dear Faith and Family,

I am not going to tell you I know how you feel, but I am going to say not having Mommy any longer is heartbreaking and that I know about because my Mom is no longer with me.

Hold on to each other and it will get better eventually I promise.

Your Mom was a wonderful loving smart talented fun loving woman. I know she wants you to live out your lives to the full. So please try to honor her wishes.

Holidays will come and go she will be missed. But having loving fond memories of how she fused over you, made you made and mad you laugh, you will remember how much she loved you.
