“ Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson

“ To The Family Of Elizabeth Wilson: My heart breaks as I read of the loss Elizabeth. 62 years is such a short period of time. It's not enough. No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. It's not selfish to say, "I want you to say" Our Gand Creator put eternity in our mind. We don't ever want to die. Death was never in HIS original purpose for humans. He didn't give up on us. He just had to take a different route to accomplish his purpose. Elizabeth has the opportunity to live again, in paradise on earth. She can rest now, until her name is called in the resurrection. Even Jesus said, "You will be with me in paradise". Luke 23:43, Revelation 21:3-5. Lastly, my personal favorite scripture Isaiah 41:10-13 "Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my righthand of righteousness.' For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, 'Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey McClendon##imported-end##

“ Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away to the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other,
That, we still are.

Call me by my old familiar name.
Speak to me in the easy way
which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed
at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without effect.
Without the trace of a shadow on it.

WE LOVE YOU GRANDMA LIZ AND WE WILL MISS YOU!

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Elizabeth. It's difficult, most times, to find words to comfort someone who has lost a dear loved one. Inside our hearts hurt too. One ponders what words can we say to ease the pain in your heart. I've found great comfort from reading Jesus' words at John 5:28,29, where he promises to resurrect those who have died. Also, Revelations 21:4 where our Loving Heavenly Father has promised that soon death will be no more. In fact, anything causing us mourning, outcry, tears or pain will done away with. As you reflect on the life of your loved one, her legacy and the precious memories she has left you to treasure, may you also keep God's promises close to your heart for they will, without fail, come to pass (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To The Grant Family,
We may not understand why some things happen as they do, but we can know that God is always there to see us through - And we can know relief will heal us in time of deepest doubt and grief within the loving promise of His Word. The richness of life lies in ones memories. May God continue to bless your family and our thoughts and prayers are with you. - Sincere condolences##imported-begin##George & Sheila Bryant & Family##imported-end## “ Though there be many things that we cannot explain. We can be sure it breaks Gods heart to see his children's pain. When we are passed into a better world of majesty and light, we pray someday we'll be together again where we will thank Him for His mercy and praise Him for His love.

Abundant Prayers,
