“ After leaving this elementary school and attending more suburban schools , it made me realize how much she really cared about us students.

“ It's been 8 years and I never will or have forgotten the moments I shared with Mrs. Nevels. I loved her so much! When January 11th came I looked at my niece and said she left us on this day. She is a beautiful memory, I will never forget her love and compassion for her students and parents at Vernor. May God continue to bless her family with peace, comfort, love, and strength. She impacted more than her natural family, I was a part of the James Vernor Elementary family and this was one woman I will never forget.....R.I.P.

Please accept my deepest condolences on your unexpected and untimely death of Mrs. Elizabeth Nevels. My Family and I were referred to Vernor Elementary School by Ms. Colquit (Emerson Elementary School Principal 2005-2006); a good friend of hers. Ms. Nevels was very serious and compassionate about educating our young people and she also respected the differences in families and understood that you had to play the hand that you were dealt in this thing called "LIFE"... “ To the Nevels family,

Even though you are missing a loved one, please remember that she is in a better place. Mrs. Nevels was one of my favorite principals in the world. She always told me that if I didn't secede in my education, that I would be in a world of trouble. I can remember one, there happen to someone homeless in the streets. She said, "Harold, look at me. You come from a family of educator. If you don't better yourself for anyone, do it for me." It sadden me to see that I have lost someone who has touched so many lives in her lifetime. I just want to say that the family will stay in my prayers.##imported-begin##Harold Wilson and Family##imported-end##

“ What a JEWEL... She will truly be missed. This lady was an inspiration to me and my son, Dontae Addison. They don't make many like her anymore. Whenever we would see each other, she would always stop to talk to me and offer her experience and advise. She mentored me on being single mother trying to raise a son while going back to school. Her advise was always right on point. My thoughts and condolences go out to all her family, staff, students, and friends that are sharing in this great loss. Mrs. Nevels will always live on in our hearts, and we now have no choice but to reach our goals that she drilled so about.
I love you Ms. Nevels....##imported-begin##LaVonne Addison##imported-end##
