“ Dear Ellen's Family,

There is not an educator anywhere in the Detroit Public Schools who is not shocked, grieved, and overcome with sorrow at Ellen's passing. Upon hearing the news, I just felt that I had to write and express to you my very profound sympathies on the loss of your sister, and my colleague and friend.

I could tell you that Ellen was a great woman, but you already know that. She spent a good part of her life working for the children of Detroit, engaged in the betterment of science education for their benefit, fighting for the best "her kids" could get. She was a woman of dedication and honor, and I, for one, am very happy I was given the opportunity of working with her and calling her my friend.

Her love, kindness, and care will live on; the Detroit Public Schools educators will see to that.

I extend my deepest sympathy and condolences to the family.

Sincerely,

Judy Burford###imported-begin##Judy Burford###imported-end##

“ Thank you for sharing Ellen with me over the last 30 years. Ellen and I met at DPS workshops and remained friends over the years. Ellen dedicated herself to the children of Detroit and their education. She was a remarkable person. We shared our stories of school and family often. I have met her family through pictures and stories she told me. I truly will miss my friend, Ellen. God Bless.##imported-begin##Karen Waligora##imported-end##

“ Dear Micki and family,

I cannot put in to words how I feel about the loss of dear Ellen. I only knew her a short twelve years, but during that time I never heard Ellen utter a cross word about anyone or anything.

She always had a smile....never complained about anything....was always concerned about how others felt...she supported me through my illness even though she was uncomfortable. I'll always love Ellen.

She was a joy to know and work with. She gave her time and talent most unselfishly to the different organizations that she joined. Her work with the Detroit Public Schools set a high mark for others to follow.

Please call on me to help in any way.... with transport of mother to her medical appointments..... to help with Ellen's home (when you get ready to deal with it). Call me at 313-861-6455

“ Mrs. Ellen Daniels-Jones,

I will miss you so much! You believed in this little Special Education Science Teacher. You helped me believe in my self. I will NEVER forget the first person who really believed in me for teaching cognitive impaired students science. You thought I could bring science to them and I loved you for that. You always had a beautiful smile and wonderful thoughts. Thank you! Thank you so much for what you have done for me this year. I may not have know you long but you have left so much in my life. Thank you for giving so much to those you have served. You were truly a gift from God.###imported-begin##Jennifer Barnett###imported-end##
