“ To the Burney Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Eloise. May the God of all comfort give you the strength beyond what is normal so that you may endure. Death at any age is an enemy because it takes our loved ones away from us and leave us devastated! However, our Loving God has promised to destroy death...forever! (1Cor 15:26, Revelation 21:3,4)In the days and weeks ahead as you recall loving memories of Eloise, may it warm your hearts to know that she is also in God's memory too, and that very soon she will awaken at the Master's command (John 5:28,29) In the meantime, may these Bible Truths help ease your pain some and bring hope to your hearts that God will fulfill His words to us because He cares, He has promised, and we know He cannot lie (Titus 1:2, 1Peter 5:7). My deepest to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the Lord be with you in your hour of need. Psalm's 121 states, "lift up thine eyes onto the hills from whence cometh thy help, for thy help cometh from the Lord." May the memories of the life you shared with auntie warm your heart, and may God give you peace.

“ Living in Washington State, I only got to see Auntie once since she had taken ill, but that one time was a privilege. The woman was a true fighter who stayed the battle even till the end! I shall miss my aunt, she was with me when I delivered my very first sermon nothing or no one was going to hold her back from being there that evening and I shall never forget it, and no matter how far away I moved I was only 3,000 miles away, she still made me feel more like a son than a nephew. My heartfelt condolences and prayers to all of my cousins and their families.
