“ To The Family

I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you.

May the words of Christ Jesus be of comfort to you in which he promises that the day is soon to come in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28,29)

Encouraging too is the promise found at Revelation 21:3-5. Here the future for us is that Almighty God ensures of that he will wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more.##imported-begin##Annette##imported-end##

“ *To The Family and Friends of Eloise Brown:
First, I would like to send my condolences to each and every one of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another, we all know what it feels like to lose a loved one to the enemy death. I'm sure that some of you are overwhelmed with sadness and that only shows that death is unnatural. Death was never supposed to be a part of life.
Our Heavenly Father feels the pain that you are going through. He promises that the day is soon to come in which he will wipe the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5) He also promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28, 29) Until his words are fulfilled, may each of you continue to take comfort in him.##imported-begin##Lenette##imported-end##*

“ God bless the family. You all are in my prayers.
Revelation 14:13 (The Prose and Poetry of Parting) And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth.' Blessed indeed,' says the Spirit that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!

God is the ultimate source of comfort and strength and without Him, you truly have no hope.

Love you,

Your cousins: Connie, Emmanuel, Adrian, Bre'L and Willie Mae##imported-begin##LaConstance Middlebrook-King##imported-end##

“ To The family little do not know but Eloise is my godmother I miss her so much, but how I see it is that there is no need for tears because she is in a better place. Also she was the nicest, sweetest person anyone could ever meet. She had a smile of an angel. So with that being said I WANT HER TO KNOW I LOVE HER AND WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER HER...##imported-begin##Cortez D. Bostic(GODSON)##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Eloise C. Brown:
We, the members of Sweet Canaan Baptist Church, 316 Mountain Springs Road, Piedmont, South Carolina, under the leadership of Pastor Pervis L. Brown send this heartfelt condolence to the family and friends of Mrs. Eloise C. Brown:

We realize that words may seem so empty while you are grieving the loss of your beloved wife, mother, daughter, sister, and friend. Be blessed in the knowledge that God has called one whom you loved so dearly to eternal rest. Though it seems like a contradiction in terms when you think of those who mourn as being blessed, however God will give to those who know Him in a personal way, the strength to endure these very difficult days.

Mrs. Eloise C. Brown will be remembered as you share the stories and the memories of how she lived her life and how much she meant to each of you. May you find comfort in knowing that the Sweet Canaan Baptist Church family is praying that God will surround you in His everlasting and loving arms, and that His peace will be your strength during these difficult days.

Warmly,

The Sweet Canaan Baptist Church Family##imported-begin##Sandra Durham on behalf of Sweet Canaan Baptist Church##imported-end##
