“ My sincere condolence goes out to the Rodgers family. The Bible says of the Almighty: "He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God shall wipe away tears from off all faces..."-Isa. 25:8. May you find comfort thru the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ *My Dearest Ms. Rodgers,
Thank you for all the good times, good food, family gatherings, lots of laughter and the best of times ever.
You were always there for us, no matter what. The biggest, warmest heart. The best hugs...
These are the things that I will always keep close to my heart. I thank God for your presence in our lives.
You will truly be missed, and our lives won't be the same without you. And now it's time to rest, on to a better life, eternally.
We will all be together again someday and we will have the BEST family reunion ever in heaven.
All my love,

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Emma. It's difficult most times to find words to comfort someone who has lost a dear loved one. Inside our hearts hurt too, but what words can we say to ease your pain? I've found great comfort from reading Jesus' words at John 5:28,29, where he promises to resurrect those who have died. Also, Revelations 21:4 where our Loving Heavenly Father has promised that soon death will be no more. In fact, anything causing us mourning, outcry, tears or pain will done away with. (Isaiah 25:8). May your hearts find peace and comfort in the days ahead knowing that our Loving God (Psalm 83:18) will truly keep his word to us and all that he has promised will come true. (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
