“ Winston

It's been a long time. I don't know if you can remember me, dianne Smith. We met you and your Mom at a church during Carousel of the Nations in Windsor, Ontario, Canada. On December 23, (a few days ago) I was "lovingly" thinking of you and your Mom making the video for me for my 50th birthday (1996).

"Death leaves a heartache, no one can heal. LOVE leaves a memory no one can steal." May your hearts continue to be filled with wonderful memories of JOYFUL times.

My God continue to comfort you and Leonna.##imported-begin##J dianne Smith##imported-end##

“ *Winston,
What a loss you have suffered!! I remember meeting you and your mom at the Tulsa family reunion, many years ago. I was struck by her great spirit, energy and passion for life - not to mention her fantastic smile. She was so obviously devoted to you. I hope you have great memories to help you through the coming days as you adjust to life without her. Just know that she is only gone physically- she will live in your heart forever. God Bless you!###imported-begin###Sherrell Gayhardt###imported-end##*

“Oh My Record.
Oh My Record, Will be there.
Be its pages dark or fare.
When I stand, stand before that judgement bar.
Oh and when the book shall open wide, in that morning by and by.
Oh my record, oh my record it will be there.

“ Dear Winston and Leonna,
Our hearts are heavy this season as we remain in disbelief that God has taken our sister from this earth to be with Him in his heavenly home. Please know how much we love you and we are here for you. We know God's plans are perfect and as grandmother says, "He only wants the "good people."Your mom/sister was the best! She'll live on in our hearts and memory for the rest of our lives, until we meet again on the other shore. RIP Essie, We love U!###imported-begin###Cousins Anya, Wm, Cathy,Paula,Vincent and Jordan & Grandmother, too###imported-end###
