“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ My sincere condolence goes out to the Byrd family. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all those that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ To the Byrd Family, I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength from God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra Sargent##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolence for the of your loved one Mrs Byrd. During this time of mourning, may you find comfort in persistent prayers as, "the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your heart and your mental powers." ( Philippians 4:7 ) I certainly hope in knowing that God care will make a difference at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##

“ Dear Byrd family, Please accept this post as my expression of condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Essie Dean. The bible gives satisfying answers to what happen to us at the time of death. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14)"If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that I have for seeing my mother again, and it also one that I wish for Ms. Essie. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
