“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Boyd-Carroll##imported-end##

“ I have been a member of this family since the age of seven. I treated as one of "Ma" children throughout my life. Terry has always been my sister & Joe & Floyd treated me as their other "nusiance" of a sister. I loved Ma as I loved my own mother. My prayers and love continue to flow to this family. I appreciate how Ma loved me & I will always hold her close to my hear.##imported-begin##Lynda Parson-Jordan##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Stanley family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ With deepest sympathy. We have loss a wonderful aunt but it is in dying that we are born to eternal life . We always look forward to our aunt being the first person to arrive for the annual Christmas dinner at our home. However, I am reminder There is love that will live forever, and there are memories that will shine through the sorrow. We love you family and are here for you all year nephew, Willie C and (niece), Vera###imported-begin##Vera BrOwn###imported-end##
