“ To the Family my these words keep in your heart as your love one has passed on. John 5:24-25; I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned; he has crossed over from death to life. I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live. God is with you the family forever.##imported-begin##Moszella Bishop##imported-end##

“ To My Aunt Elsie,

I would like to say that I never would have thought that I would not be there for you in this time of need. You are so close to my heart. I know when we lose someone close, it seems as if time stands still, but God promises us that we shall see our loved ones again. I pray that the memories that you have give you comfort and keep you until that glorious day.

I know these are just words and they do not express the love that I have for you (My Favorite Auntie) and your family, but I truly love you and pray that the LORD gives you the strength you need to endure the days ahead.

Isaiah 41:10, 13

Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. . . . For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

Love you and keeping you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,

“ Dear Family: No matter how old our loved ones live to be, no matter how long they are with us, it is never long enough because we love them so much and it breaks our hearts when death takes them from us (Psalm 89:48). Treasure the memories you have of Mrs. Eva. Remember the valuable lessons she taught you. May you find comfort in knowing that our Loving Creator has promised that soon 'all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out', including Mrs. Eva. (John 5:28,29). Death will be destroyed (1 Corinthians 15:26) and mankind will then be able to live on this earth, free of sickness, old age and death as God originally intended. (Genesis 1:26-28; 2:15; Psalm 37:29). That is God's promise to us and it is something He's yearning to do because he cares for us (1Peter 5:7, Job 14:14,15). We can have faith that ALL he says will come to pass for he is the True God (Psalm 83:18) that cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
