“ Sis. Evelyne Douglas will truly be missed. She has been very dear to our hearts since we met her. As members of the Enon church family, we have witnessed first hand Sis. Douglas' love of GOD along with her dedication and love for her Pastor and church. While we are sad to see her depart this world, we believe that the Lord has a reward for her faith and her works. To the family, be encouraged and comforted by GOD. Thank you for sharing Mother Douglas with us. -The Barksdale Family##imported-begin##Barksdale Family##imported-end##

“ At times like this, we reflect on something unique which really made the relationship very special and something that you will never forget and will bring a smile to your face. Of course, I have known my Great Aunt, Mrs. Evelyne Douglas, all of my life and as I was reflecting back over the years; I realized something that was truly wonderful about my Great Aunt. Out of all of the conversations we have ever had over the years; those conversations were only about two subjects: (1) God, and (2) Family; NOTHING ELSE. My Great Aunt really loved God and she really loved her family.

So family for comfort, I encourage you to read Proverbs 31:10-31; "Epilogue: The Wife of Noble Character" paying special attention to verse 26: "She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue". Family, may God bless; and you are in our prayers. Love Ronald and Dora McCrary. Fort Valley, Georgia.##imported-begin##Ronald McCrary##imported-end##
