“ Dear Family,

Heartfelt condolences to you at this time, and may these comforting thoughts from God's Word please be yours.

“The hour is coming,” said Jesus, “in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Christ’s] voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15.

When speaking to his aged servant Daniel, God said: “You will rest [or sleep in death], but you will stand up for your lot at the end of the days.” (Daniel 12:13) How those words must have comforted Daniel, enabling him to face death with courage and dignity!

May the peace of God be with you.##imported-begin##Ms Putman##imported-end##

“ To: Evelyn’s Other Family Members and Friends

I join you in in your grief over the loss of my sister and your mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She will be missed but, our memories of her and her life will live on with us. I will always appreciate our relationship as I recall our life together in my mind and through pictures and videos.

Family illness will not allow me to travel at this time but, I will be with you in sprit and through love.
