“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ To The Burnham Family,

I was sorry to learn of Mrs. Burnham's passing. I worked with her many years ago at the Board of Education when I was a high school co-op student. She was such a kind lady and always had a smile on her face. Know that she is resting in the arms of Jesus. God bless you.

“ Dear Burnham family,

Please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Evelyn Lucille. The bible holds out the wonderful hope of a future resurrection where it states at (Job 14:14)"If an able bodied man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that I have for my mother and one that I wish for Ms. Evelyn. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.
It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear.
Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.”
(John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. There are many comforting words throughout the bible, I am forwarding my favorite to you all: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness.’ For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May the memories and love you shared with your loved one, Evelyn, help soothe the grief you are experiencing today. May God's promise of a resurrection and life without end bring your hearts and minds much comfort in the days ahead. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ My heart and deepest sympathy goes out to the Burnham family. Jesus says, "Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth-they that have done good to a resurrection of life."-John 5:28,29. May you find comfort through the Word of God.##imported-begin##Mrs. C##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Burnett family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
