Dorothy, I just can't image your heart is so heavy with sadness, however when you think of your mother there would be memories of happiness and gladness. I'm praying for you and your family.##imported-begin##Cheryl Banks##imported-end##

“ Dearest Dorothy and Family, I am so very sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. We always talked about how close we are to our mothers and how much they mean to us. I know what an attentive, loving daughter you were to your mom. You spent a lot of time with her and took such good care of her. I remember when I first met your mom when we all were shopping in Farmer Jack. She was very friendly and nice, and I enjoyed meeting her very much. I know your heart is heavy and I can't even begin to imagine what you are going through. No words can adequately express my feelings, but I want you to know I am thinking about you keeping you in my prayers. God Bless you and your family and keep you in His loving care. “ I am so sorry for your loss. No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. The bible tells us that, "death does have a sting." But, we can be encouraged, because soon that sting will be gone. Jesus tells us that, all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out. Jesus always told the truth. That will be a glorious time! Certainly we want to do all we can to be there to welcome Mrs. Johnson back. Our God Jehovah is truly a God of comfort and not the cause of such pain. Our prayers are with you and the family. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I please offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, your mother. May the God of all comfort give you the strength beyond what is normal to endure. (2 Cor. 1:3,4) Death at any age is an enemy because it robs us of our loved ones and leaves the family survivors with unspeakable hurt, helplessness and sorrow. Thankfully, our Loving Creator has promised to destroy death forever (1 Cor. 15:26). Also, the time is coming, very soon, now, when Jehovah will wipe out every tear from our eyes and DEATH will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore (Revelation 21:3,4). In the weeks and months and years ahead, as you recall the precious memories of your dear mother, rest assured that she is in Jehovah God's memory too, and that very soon, He will remember your mother and call her name...she will awaken from death's sleep at His command (John 5:28,29) This is God's promise to us because he cares for us. This is something he is yearning to do for us for our everlasting happiness (1 Peter 5:7 and Job 14:14,15) Even though I didn't know your mother personally, my heart is with you and I understand your pain. May you find comfort in these Bible Truths just as I did when I, too, lost my mother. Take courage in ALL that God has promised for it will surely come true (Titus 1:2, Isaiah 55:11) My Deepest Sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
