

Mrs. Fannie Lou Dupree

September 12, 1915 - November 29, 2012

No obituary found for this tribute.

Previous Events

Visitation

Thursday, Dec. 6. 3:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

O. H. Pye, III Funeral Home
17600 Plymouth Road
Detroit, MI 48227
(313) 838-9770
info@pyefuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Fannie Lou Dupree

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ Family,

When I heard about the passing of our dear Aunt Fannie I was sad and joyful all at the same time. She has been in my life for as long as I can remember and I am so blessed to have been her blood. She was a very strong-willed woman and she taught me so many things about life and all its ups and downs. Today I am celebrating with you the life of Mrs. Fannie Dupree...out of all my relatives it was Aunt Fannie that EVERYONE has gone to at least once for something...money, advice, an ear to vent, food or even a place to lay your head. She was down to earth and real, she did not shy away from trouble or controversy and she was not afraid to tell you how it TIS...I loved her and she was good to me and my family. I thank God for her and I know that she lived her life well and for that I am grateful. We may weep at times to know that she is no longer with us and that is natural, God is our ultimate comforter for times like these. She paved the way for us, all we have to do is follow in her footsteps.##imported-begin##Brenda Marion##imported-end##

December 07, 2012 at 10:09 AM

“ To the Dupree family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."-Ps.34:18.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

December 03, 2012 at 05:59 AM

“ Dear Family: Today your hearts ache in grief and for good reason. You have lost the backbone, the stabilizing force, the patriarch of your family. I understand that feeling quite well for years ago we lost the matriarch of our family. She, too, lived to be almost one hundred years old. I remember feeling abandoned, orphaned and even a little afraid because this person had ALWAYS been there in my life from the time that I can remember myself and then to be suddenly gone...it was devastating! It brings to fore just how fleeting life is... like a mist, you are here but a short time and then you're gone. (James 4:14) Even so, they leave beautiful and fond memories of better days gone by. How we yearn for those days because we wish we could be with them again to still show them just how much they mean to us and how much we love them. It was so comforting and reassuring to know that our Loving Creator feels the same way and that's why he has promised us in his Word, the Bible, that soon he will destroy death forever! (Isaiah 25:8) His Son, Jesus Christ, has promised that he will, in due time, awaken our loved ones from the 'sleep' of death to life again. (John 5:28,29; 11:11-14,25) It was never God's purpose that man should die and that's why he tells us at Revelation 21:4,5 that soon, all the things that cause us mourning, tears, sorrow and pain will be gone for good, including death!! No, we cannot return to better days gone by, however, the very BEST days are yet to come. Our God has: "commanded the blessing, even life for evermore" (Psalm 133:3; Psalm 37:29) We can rest assured that it shall be so, for we know that he cannot lie. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

November 30, 2012 at 09:08 PM