“ To my beautiful grandmother, it was so hard to say goodbye; not being with you on your final days proved to be devastating. I promised you that I would always stop by and see you whenever I came home from Tallahassee, and I felt I let you down. You were taking away from me and it hurts so bad, I love you so much and I wish I could have been there to tell you that on your final day. I will miss watching the stories with you, I will miss eating boil chicken and string beans with you, I will miss walking to the grocery store with you, I will miss looking at old pictures and listening to the stories about your childhood, I will miss putting on all your church hats and all that jewelry you had. Most of all I will miss your laughs and smiles, your hugs and kisses, and the jokes you made about Clyde...LOL. I will miss you so much grandma, thanks for being the best grandma ever; you will be truly missed.
P.S. I will never forget how you told me you were tired of being sick and you're ready to go home to the kingdom of everlasting life.
YOU'RE FINAL HOME “You will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”

“ to my cousin Walter and his family ,I have had all of you in my prayers since I've heard about Aunt Jamie. I truly loved you, Walter, and I will miss my Aunt Jamie. I am very grateful to have had her in my young life and in my adult life. I felt true,genuine love and care from my Aunt. I will carry it for the rest of my life. I am sorry that my children never got to know her like I did, they would have come to understand the kind of people I grew up with. I will not go on for long in this eulogy of my Aunt, but I must state again how truly kind and concerned and very family-oriented she was. And , I have to add, she was 'fun' to be with. Thanks Aunt JAMIE for the memories, rest in peace until we all meet again, your niece, Sharon.##imported-begin##sharon banks-geter##imported-end##

“ To the Adams Family: It saddens my heart to hear about the loss of your loved one...Mrs. Jamie. Our Heavenly Father knows that death causes us much pain and sorrow. He assures us that He will wipe out every tear from our eyes and, that one day soon, death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) May you find comfort in the hope held out to us in the Scriptures knowing that our God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). It will all come true for us (Joshua 23:14). Please accept my sincere condolences###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###

“ Jamie used to like the song "This Old Building Keeps On Leaning" (I've gotta find me a better home). Well, Jamie has "Moved From Her Old House To Her New Home). Think of the good times and her smile and the love she had to give to us all. Jamie will forever live on in our hearts. To all of my family members and friends of the family, thank you for everything! and most of all thank God for giving us "Jamie". Charles and Brenda Wimberly & family of Albany, Ga & Miami, FL remember, God is in charge. Be Blessed!##imported-begin##Mrs. Brenda ##imported-end##
