“ May I extend to you my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Flora. Death is something that our Loving God never purposed that we should experience. Death is an enemy to us because it separates from those we love. However, Jehovah has promised that soon death, and the One causing death will be destroyed...forever (1 Corinthians 15:26; Hebrews 2:14) Jehovah will then wipe away all our tears of sorrow, mourning and pain. (Revelation 21:4) You will find unspeakable joy when Jehovah restores Flora to you by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29). May you find comfort, hope and healing in his words as you await the fulfillment of his promises...just ahead (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##miss niecey##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I didn't know Mrs. Flora personally, but I was so moved by the comments of those who did know her, especially her life-long friend. Friendships of that sort are very rare and so special (Proverbs 18:24). That's why it hurts us so much when we lose someone near and dear to us. However, there is also One who understands how it feels to lose someone dear to him, Jehovah God, who allowed his Son, Jesus to die that we might have life (John 3:16) And, his Son was willing to do so saying "No one has love greater than this, that someone should surrender his soul in behalf of his friends" (John 15:13). Both Jehovah God and Jesus, his son, opened the way for us to be able to see again our loved ones who have died..by means of a resurrection.(John 5:28,29) Death will then be eliminated..forever! Life-long friendships will then be the order of the day because we will NEVER have to worry about loosing our loved ones to death again! (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 25:8) Our two Greatest Friends, our Heavenly Father, Jehovah God and his Son, Jesus, have already made that provision for us because they also want us to live happily forever as their friends. (Revelation 21:3,4,John 11:25) May you find healing, hope and comfort in their promises soon to become reality. As true and loving Friends, they will keep their word (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dearest, Mrs. Lee. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28,29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this most difficult time###imported-begin##Liz Malone###imported-end##

“ Flora, a dear friend from my teenage years that graduate from high school with me will truly be missed. We became especially close during our latter years when I reunited and married my childhood sweetheart Frank who was her husband Arthur’s best friend. We shared many great times during her last years that I will always cherish. To her children, be strong. Flora is where she wants to be-with Art and GOD. I will keep you in my prayers.###imported-begin##Addie Kelly###imported-end##

“ I just wanted to let you know how deeply saddened I was to hear about the passing of your mother. I can truly say every story about and interaction with Flora was positive. My mother, Queen Esther, truly loved her, your dad and you. Having known each other since preK they shared many memories. All of you are in my prayers.
Hopefully, you will all stay close and lean on each other during this critical time.##imported-begin##Yulanda Essoka##imported-end##

“ Flora was my oldest and dearest friend. We met as pre-primer school children. The pre-primer is known as kindergarten today. We connected and a bond was formed that grew over the years into a deep, loving and secure friendship. We grew especially close during our teenage years and would bare our souls to one another and never worry about our secrets being exposed. We gave one another space within the relationship. This, I believe, was the key because we had many, many friends. Yet, we always reconnected to one another. We trusted one another, and had great love and respect for each other's family. Our friendship had the bond of love, fun, kindness, respect, confidence and a shared spiritual foundation. All major activities during our formative years were connected in some way to church and school.

Over the years, it was always so comforting to know Flora was only a phone call away. Now her spirit has returned to God and she is finally free of pain and limitations and reunited with the spirit of her husband.

I will miss Flora.

*A loving friend,
