“ To the Petty Family:

Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Ms. Francis. Although I didn't know her personally, I can still certainly relate to the 'grandmother' relationship, for I too, had a beautiful grandmother and I was very close to her. Death, at any age, is tragic and a true enemy of mankind because it separates us from those who are so special to us. However, our Loving Heavenly Father has made provision to wipe out death forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26). He also assure us that soon "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes' and ' DEATH will be no more! (Revelation 21:4). In the days and weeks ahead as you recall many found memories of your grandmother, rest assured that she is in God's memory too; and that soon, God will remember her and she will awaken to life again at His command (John 5:28,29). This is God's promise to all mankind sleeping in death (John 11:24,25) It is these Bible Truths that have comforted me over the years as we all await the fulfillment of his promises just ahead. Rest assured, the God of Truth will do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2) My Deepest Sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To my loving grandmother Francis Helen Petty. Who always had the patience to teach me by example and train my spirit into the immutable ways of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. For taking time to "church me". You taught me that there is more to life than football on Sundays. Your legacy is a show not tell. From teaching Sunday School to leading me to Vacation Bible School at the Original Church of God on Linwood in Detroit, or just hanging out on "Moma's porch anticipating delicious chicken and biscuits with honey or syrup. May the gates of Heaven welcome you into the everlasting fold and the promise of a place prepared for you by Jesus Christ for a well done duplication of His efforts through me and my children and their children's children on earth. All Love. Your Grandson with children of our Most High God. Forever Memories of Wisdom, Power and Love.

Your Grandson

“ John,
UMI, My wife, and I join with you in celebrating the homegoing of your mother. You have been blessed indeed to have her with you for such a long time. May your memories of her give you a sense of peace. As you well know, you will meet her again and your heart will rejoice when He, the Lord Jesus, wipes away all tears from our eyes (Revelation 21:4). May God bless you at this time.
