“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Frances and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

Respectfully,

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ Dear Family: No matter how old our loved ones live to be, no matter how long they are with us, it is never long enough because we love them so much and it breaks our hearts when death takes them from us (Psalm 89:48). I realize that words may offer little comfort at this time, but hopefully in the days and weeks ahead you will consider God's promises to mankind regarding this 'enemy'. Our Loving God (Psalm 83:18) promises us that 'death' will be destroyed...forever (1 Corinthians 15:26). And He will lovingly resurrect our loved ones, including your loved one, Mrs. Francis. (John 11:25,26). Anything causing us mourning, pain, tears and sorrow will be gone forever (Revelation 21:4). So, even though there are tears today, I hope that future days will help you to see that God promises a beautiful tomorrow (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.
