“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ Dear Family: When a loved one dies, the grief experienced by families and friends is, needless to say, inconsolable. But may ease your mind and comfort your hearts to recall God's Word at John 5:28,29:'....The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out." The Bible assures us that the time will come when we will see our loved ones again and "death will be no more".Revelation 21:4, Psalm 37:11,29) My Deepest Sympathy to you.##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey##imported-end##

“ May you receive the strength you need to endure the days ahead. As you reflect on the happier times you shared with Mrs. Washington, may your tears of sadness turn to smiles. You are in my thoughts and prayers for the strength & peace that only Jehovah God can provide the guidance you need during this difficult time. “ It is with deepest sympathy that I send my love and prayers to my cousins and their family members. I love my aunt Francine and will always remember her as a caring, honest, person. She was always easy to talk to and I will miss our sharing conversations. Rest in peace Aunt Francine and enjoy your new home in heaven. I have no doubt that you made it.
