“ *Nancy,
I just wanted to extend my deepest condolences to you in the loss of your mother. I'm sure that this is a difficult time for you, but know that I'm praying for you....since there's absolutely nothing too hard for God. The Thomas Family mourn with you, fully understanding that "Weeping may endure for a night....but joy cometh in the morning...are praying for you...and will celebrate with you when morning comes!! May the God of all comfort keep you in perfect peace. Love you much.*”

“ Dear Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mrs. Newton. Although I didn't know her personally, I can still relate to the distress of losing a loved one. (Psalm 89:48). She truly was a lady of 'special mightiness' (Psalm 90:10). However, no matter how long our loved ones are with us, it is still never long enough. We love them and don't want them to die. This is only natural because God has planted 'eternity' in our hearts. We were not created to die, but to live! (Ecclesiastes 3:11, Genesis 2:7,8,15) That is still God's purpose for us, so He has promised us that (soon) he will destroy death...forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26). Those sleeping in death will be resurrected to life (John 5:28,29, Psalm 37:11,29) and death will never haunt, hunt, or hurt us again! (Isaiah 25:8) Tears of joy instead of tears of sorrow (Revelation 21:4) May God's word help bring healing to your hearts and make your sorrow a little easier to bear. Rest assured, He will do all that he has said. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
