“ I have had to walk in the steps that you are currently walking in. Some of the things that have helped me is my faith in God, knowing that mama is with the Lord and cherishing all the times that we have shared together. You might find yourself crying and that is okay. This is a time when you will receive strength from above. Know that you are not alone and if there is anything I can do I will do my best. Some people say, you have my sympathy: I choose to say I rejoice with you that mama is at rest and if we live right we will see her again. Jesus is there to comfort you and understands it all.
