“ I send prayers and sympathy to the family at this difficult time. May you keep close in mind the hope of the resurrection when your grief will be turned into joy at the reunion of all families with their loved ones. At that time sadness, loss and grief will be remembered no more. (Revelation 21:3,4)##imported-begin##Jeanne##imported-end##

“ *To the Boyd family: As we await the time when Christ Jesus will awaken all who have fallen asleep in death; including your beloved Mrs. Boyd. Please accept my sincere condolences, during this time of bereavement. I pray Our Grand Creator, who is the God of all comfort; give you the strength needed to endure the pain that now fills your heart. “ Dear Family

We know that your hearts are heavy. Sister Boyd has completed her journey, finished her book of life, closed all the chapters, and accomplished the mission. We thank The Lord for the life of Sister Boyd and the lives that she touched.

You are now in God’s care. Allow The only King of Kings and Lord of Lords to have all of your worries and cares; for He is always thinking about you and He is concerned about you. I Peter 5:7 states, “casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you.”

You’re in our thoughts and prayers during this time and we pray that these words will lift your spirits and encourage your heart.

*With our sincere prayers,

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Boyd family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
