“ *To the Family of Georgia Marie Williams:
I am very sorry to hear about your loss. I am writing to share the marvelous hope that the Bible holds out for a future resurrection. I invite you to read Revelation 21:3, 4. Here God promises us that death and suffering will be no more. It is comforting to reflect on the resurrection hope. You and your family are in my prayers. Have a nice day!##imported-begin##Deyona##imported-end##*

“ To the family, I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort and strength through God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 states that God will wipe the tears from all faces and swallow up death forever. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra Sargent##imported-end##

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Georgia was such a lovely, wonderful person and in many ways was a second mother to me for years. I'm so saddened to hear of her passing. However, now she can peacefully live with the angels and walk with God, where I am sure she is happy and smiling down upon us all. May she forever be blessed.

*Much love always,

“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Isaiah 25: 8 Please read it. . I hope it will bring you some comfort to you and your family in the coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##
