“ *To Lester, Myra and Family:
Our thoughts and Prayers are with you and your Family. Geraldine O'Dell was a warm thoughtful person who always had a smile and encouraging word for us when we visited Detroit or when she returned to Buffalo. She will be missed! Continue to look to the hills from whence cometh your help! Psalm 121*

“ There are often no words that can provide all expressions needed when a family is grieving. But the Bible does speak to the Christian words of comfort for we are all part of the family of God, the Body of Christ!

I Thessalonians 4:13-18 lets us know that those who pass away knowing the Lord shall rise first and one day those who are alive "shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air." So those of us who have hope do not grieve as those who do not. Paul continues to direct the Christian to encourage one another with words reminding us that those who know Christ will live with the Lord forever.

Mrs. Geraldine will be missed by many as she lived a life of love in following Christ. Paraphrasing the words of one preacher, "She is not lost to those who know the Lord. She has passed on into the loving arms of God our Father!"
